India's Trade Policy and GVCs

- 10 This article studies the trends in the global value chain participation of six sectors from Indian manufacturing with an emphasis on the nature of participation. It analyses the trends over the last few decades and connects it to the changes in the trade policy of the Indian government.
— Deeparghya Mukherjee

Repealment of the Rubber Act, 1947

- 14 The Rubber (Promotion and Development) Bill, 2022 proposed to replace the Rubber Act, 1947 is vehemently criticised by the politicians and farmer forums from Kerala. There are several aspects to be relooked at and modified in the bill, though most of the criticisms are unfounded. — Toms Joseph

Pandemic and Delayed Payments under MGNREGS

- 20 The problem of delayed payments of wages in West Bengal, which stands second in terms of the severity of payment delays in the Mahatma Gandhi National Rural Employment Guarantee Scheme is studied in this article.
— Dipanwita Chakraborty

Crimes against Women in Indian Metropolitan Cities

- 33 This article is concerned with the inter-urban analysis of incidents and the rate and nature of the crimes against women in Indian metropolitan cities. The impact (footprints) of metropolitan cities on crimes against women in the respective states is also analysed. — Rambooshan Tiwari

Unpacking India's COVID-19 Social Assistance Package

- 39 This paper assesses who benefited from COVID-19 social assistance in India and to what extent, using administrative data from each of the main programmes included in the package. The analysis shows that the implementation constraints, partial uptake, and substitution effects reduced the overall transfer of resources to households relative to budget allocations.
— Urmila Chatterjee, Martin Rama & Deepak Varshney

Sex Work, COVID-19, and Half-truths

- 49 This paper draws upon the results of a multistate survey of female/male/transgender sex workers to revisit and complicate some of the stereotypes concerning the immobility of sex workers within informal labour markets, their indebtedness, and bondage to informal creditors. — V Kalyan Shankar, Rohini Sahni, Meena Saraswathi Seshu, Aarthi Pai, Laxmi Murthy & Tejaswi Sevekari

The Making of 'Sisoti'

- 57 How the word society transforms into "sisoti" in the film Manthan and how this process of translation leaves the villagers with a residual meaning are analysed in this paper. This spillover of meaning eventually helps the characters deconstruct and recalibrate caste relations in the film.
— Chahat Rana, Rita Kothari

Hijab, Patriarchy, and the Women's Question

- 63 In a reply to contemporary philosopher Sundar Sarukkai's argument in his editorial comment, "Uniformity or Equality?" (EPW, 12 February 2022) that school uniforms symbolise disciplinary order, this article argues that school uniforms, at the same time, uphold the essential patriarchal order.
